In addition to the quantity sold by Moxley and Barber, your agents, the two other stores sell more of them than any other medicine. I find they are much used by convalescent fever patients to rebuild their broken constitutions. I have used during the last summer, in my own family, four bottles. They were recommended to me first by a neighbor, at a time when my system was much debilitated from the effects of a severe billious fever. They gave me an appetite, and restored a tone and vigor to my whole system. In one of the September numbers of my paper, I related my experience of the good effects of the Bitters, since which time they have had a large sale, and have now become the standard medicine in this vicinity. In conclusion, I would say that I feel great pleasure in giving you this testimony of the value and success of your preparation. Respectfully yours, RALPH LUTE.

THE EAGLE
STEAM FOUNDRY

TURTON & SERCOMB,
296, 298, 300, 302 and 304, West Water Street
IS still in full blast, working day and night to supply the daily increasing wants of the Badger and other States.
In order the better to do this the proprietors have erected a large brick Foundry in addition to their former premises. They have added to their stock of Tools a large Planing Machine or Shaping Machine, three Lathes, and a machine for making bolts, and are now putting in a Steam Engine of — horse power to drive the whole, thereby adding to their former facilities for the successful carrying on of the Foundry, Machine, Engine, and Blacksmithing business. They never were in a better position for doing business, and defy competion in any department.
In regard to the character of the work got up by this, The Oldest Establishment in the State, the Proprietors refer to that in successful operation through the country as their best recommendation; as it can speak for itself. All they can say is, that they are both PRACTICAL MECHANICS, and know how work should be done as well as the next man. They continue to manufacture Flour and Saw Mill Gearing and Steam Engines, on the most approved principle.
They have always on hand a large stock of BRASS WORK, such as Gauge and Cylinder Cocks, Oil Cups & Cocks, and Steam Whistles. Also Turton's Files, which they will sell at the lowest cash prices.
They are also Agents for Eastman's Patent Steam Gauges, which are well worth the attention of all who use Steam Engines.
In conclusion, they invite a continued share of the patronage of their old friends, and solicit a call from all those in want of Saw or Flouring Mill Work, assuring them that no exertions will be spared to render the Old Eagle worthy of the reputation it has already gained.
Their motto is, "Excelsior."

PROCLAMATION.

A year of general peace and prosperity is drawing to a close. During this period our young State has steadily advanced in her rapid career towards wealth and greatness. Her resources have received an ampler development. New avenues of trade and intercommunication have been opened, and a fresh impetus given to all departments of industry. Labor in all its legitimate spheres of exercise, has been bountifully rewarded. A generous harvest has filled the land with plenty, while health and happiness have prevailed within our borders. In the enjoyment of these temporal blessings, we should not be unmindful of the gracious Giver of all good gifts, the manifold exhibitions of whose favor and goodness meet us on every hand, and that we may express our gratitude for these bounties, I hereby appoint Thursday the 20th day of November next, to be observed as a day of Public Thanksgiving and Praise throughout the State. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my name and caused the Great Seal of the State of [illegible] [L. S.] [illegible] this [illegible] day of October, A. D. 1856.

By the Governor, COLES BASHFORD.

JOHN W. HUNT, Ass't Sec'y of State.

SOLD OUT.—The Wisconsin & Lake Superior R. R. Co. has sold out to Chicago. The public are promised an explanation. The Fond du Lac Union of yesterday, says:

"The books for subscription to the stock of this road, were opened on the 6th inst., and remained open until yesterday, at 4 P. M., at which time over $180,000 had been subscribed. Messrs. Weed, Doty, Scott, Kuehn, Hiller, Gill, Haertel, White and Wright, of the old Board of Directors, resigned, and Messrs. Wm. B. Ogden, N. K. Wheeler, Henry Smith and John P. Chapin of Chicago, J. J. R. Pease and J. B. Crosby of Janesville, Rufus Cheney, Jr., of Whitewater, and Chas. Butler and J. W. Hickok of New York, were elected in their place.

The Hon Wm B. Ogden of Chicago was elected President of the company, vice J. H. Weed, resigned."

The Directors, we suppose, only followed the example of the last Legislature, and sold out to the highest bidder. We wish the public knew all the facts concerning the disposition of the Land Grant. They would pray to be delivered from another such curse.

ERRATA.—There were several bad typographical errors in our article of yesterday on Know Nothingism. A gross one in the last sentence destroyed the sense entirely. It should read:

Let the poor Pope, who keeps his throne only by the aid of foreign bayonets, cling to his sceptre amid the despotisms of the old world, but be it yours and ours to teach a better faith and a better baptism—the baptism of Freedom, and the faith of an equal Human Brotherhood.

DROWNED.—A sailor named William Hogan, was lost from the schooner Emily, at Sand Bay, during her last trip, on Monday last.

The Fond du Lac Daily Union is to stop to-morrow. Fond du Lac will then be without a daily paper.

WRONG CREDIT.—The Appleton Free Press credits five articles in succession, of ours, in its first two columns, to the American. If worth copying, it was worthy of the right credit.

☞ Snow covered the ground at Platteville, on the 7th inst., four or five inches deep.

A GOOD SHOT.—The Virginia correspondent of the Wheeling Intelligencer, in noticing the article in the Charleston Standard which advocates the opening of the African Slave Trade, says that he is "opposed to the removal of the unfortunate children of Africa, from their native country, where the pious missionaries of the cross are permitted to open up to them the way of salvation, by teaching them to read the word of God, to Virginia, where the labor of christian duty is prohibited under penalties.

The point made by a Republican speaker in New York, the other day, was not a bad one. "Toombs," said he, "boasted that the time would come, when he could call the roll of his slaves in the shadow of Bunker Hill Monument. The time has come. Hark! he calls: 'Rufus Choate, here; B. F. Hallett, here; Charles G. Green, here; C H Peaslee, here'" Shouts of laughter followed this hit.

CERTAINLY A GOOD REASON FOR DISCONTINUING THE PAPER.—The Warsaw (Missouri) Democrat has the following: "We strike the names of two of our subscribers from our books this week, who have recently been hung in Texas. We do this because we are not advised, as yet, of their present locality."

POTTER'S MAJORITY.—Hadley's majority in this county, after rejecting six votes for Potter, is 4123. Potter's majority in the other four counties—Waukesha official—is 4449.—Potter's majority over Hadley, 326.

☞ The Richmond Whig has been shown several beautiful white silk handkerchiefs made by two young ladies of Rappahannock County, Va.—Misses Willis—from the product of silk worms fed by themselves.

☞ A letter from Naples says: "Land slides into the principal crater of Vesuvius, have been taking place for some time past.—It is feared that the entire summit of the mountain will disappear in the open chasm. Violent and continual reports have, of late, proceeded from the volcano."

The gentleman so often spoken of in novels, who riveted people with his gaze, has now obtained permanent employment at a boiler manufactory.

Solomon Thorne, Esq., of Dutchess Co., N. Y., received $996 in premiums at the late National Agricultural Fair at Philadelphia. The premiums were for stock.

"The price of Liberty is Eternal Vigilance." The price of the Free Democrat is fifty cents a month for the daily, and two dollars a year of the weekly.

Position of the Country.

The New York Tribune takes the following view of the past contest, which is so correct and well timed that we adopt it as our own.

"We have lost a battle. The Bunker Hill of the new struggle for Freedom is past: the Saratoga and Yorktown are yet to be acheived—A party of yesterday, without organization, without official power, without prestige, and latterly almost without hope, has not overborne the oldest party in the country, with its hundred thousand office holders, its eighty millions of annual expenditure, its million and a half of voters trained by the habits of a lifetime to vote without question or hesitation whatever bears its label. The Republican party, called into being by the Nebraska iniquity of 1854, having a substantive existence in but sixteen states, has beaten one of the rival parties, which boasts of their compact organizations in all the states, but has failed to beat the other in its first Presidential canvass. James Buchanan is our next President, and J. C. Breckinridge Vice President, and the Free State men of Kansas are temporarily delivered over to the tender mercies of the Border Ruffians, tempered by the colder but not less fatal craft of the Federal patrons of those Ruffians, who have just aided in securing to those patrons another four years lease of power.

"It is well to state the case thus fairly in its broadest and worst aspects. Practically, a majority of the American people have indorsed outrages more inhuman than Poland or Hungary ever endured, and voted that it is no wrong to shoot and scalp men in Kansas for peacefully striving to keep theirs a free Territory; and make it a free State. Practically, the verdict of yesterday has enslaved Kansas, and made it treason and rebellion for her devoted inhabitants to struggle longer to avert that destiny.—Practically the brutal ruffians who yesterday at most of the polls throughout the Free States jeered at "Bleeding Kansas"—thus making sport of of robbery, arson, rape, and murder—have been indorsed and commended by the vote of their fellow citizens. Practically, the American People have reversed the policy of Slavery Restriction inaugurated by our Revolutionary patroits, and decided that liberty and slavery are equal in merit and equally accordant with the genius of Democracy. Practically the Slave Power has been bidden to take possession of the Federal government, and ride rough shod over all who manifest opposition to its pleasure or repugnance to its away. Practically, it is settled that to loathe the debasement of Man to brute chattelhood and earnestly desire Freedom for all, is a crime in Free America, to be punished by exclusion from the National councils and a denial of any voice in the direction of our public affairs."

Wealth of British Aristocracy.

The Duke of Bedford includes, or included a mile square in the heart of London, where the British Museum, once Montague House, now stands, and the land occupied by Woburn Square, Bedford Square Russel Square. The Marquis of Westminster built within a few years, the series of squares called Belgravia.—Stafford House is the noblest place in London: Northumberland House holds its place by Charing. Chesterfield House remains in Audley streets. Sion House and Holland House are in the suburbs. But most of the historical houses are masked or lost in the modern uses to which trade or charity has converted them. A multitude of town places contain inestimable galleries of art. In the country, the size of private estates is more impressive. From Barnard Castle I rode on the highway twenty-three miles from High Force toward Darlington, past Raby Castle, through the estate of the Duke of Cleveland. The Marquis of Breadalbane rides out of his house a hundred miles in a straight line, to the sea, on his own property.—The Duke of Southerland owns the county the of Southerland, stretching across Scotland from sea to sea.

The Duke of Devonshire, besides his other estate, owns ninety-six thousand acres in the county of Derby. The Duke of Richmond has forty thousand acres at Goodwood, and three hundred thousand at Gordon Castle. The Duke of Norfolk's park in Sussex is fifteen miles in circuit. An agriculturist bought lately the Island of Lewes in Hebrides, containing five hundred thousand acres. The possessions of the Earl of Lonsdale gave him eight seats in Parliament. This is the Heptarchy again; and before the reform of 1832, one hundred and fifty-four persons sent three hundred and seven members to Parliament. The borough-mongers governed England. The large dominions are growing larger. The great estates are absorbing the small freeholds. In 1786, the soil of England was owned by two hundred thousand corporations and proprietors; and in 1822, by thirty-two thousand. These broad estates find room on this narrow island. All over England, scattered at short intervals among ship yards, mines and forges, are the paradises of of the noble, where are life-long repose and refinement, heightened by the contrast with the roar of industry and necessity, out of which you have stepped aside.

R. W. Emerson's English Travels.

AGRICULTURAL DISCOVERY.—A Paris letter writer states that a scientific gentleman discovered two years ago, embedded with some embalmed bodies, a specie of wheat not then in existence. In the time of the early Gallic kings certain quantity of wheat was placed in the coffin of embalmed bodies. Some of it was sown, and it yielded from sixteen to twenty stalks to a grain, while there was on an average twenty more grains in the head than in the ordinary wheat. A considerable quantity of this ancient wheat was sown on the government farm last fall. Great reports are received of its productiveness. The ordinary wheat of France is believed to be only a degeneration of this ancient grain, deteriorated by centuries of reproduction. This discovery takes France back fourteen centuries for seed wheat, and it is expected will put her in possession of one eighth more agricultural wealth than she possessed before the discovery.—Boston Journal.

CHEAP AND EXCELLENT CANDLES.—I kept both tallow and lard candles through last summer, the lard candles standing the heat best, and burning quite as well, and giving as good light as tallow ones. Directions for making good candles from lard:—For 12 lbs of lard, take one lb. of saltpetre, and 1 lb. of alum; mix them, and pulverize them, dissolve the saltpeter and alum in a gill of boiling water; pour the compound into the lard before it is quite melted; stir the whole until it boils skim of what rises; let it simmer until the water is all boiled out, or till it ceases to throw off steam; pour off the lard as soon as it is done, and clean the boiler while it is hot. If the candles are to be run, you may commence immediately; if to be dipped, let the lard cool first to a cake, and then treat as you would tallow.—Cor. of N. E. Farmer.

GET A HOME!—Get a home, rich or poor, get a home, and learn to keep that home and make it happy to your wife and children, by your beaming presence; learn to love simple pleasures, flowers of God's own planting, and music of his own, the bird, wind and waterfall. So shall you help to stem the tide of desolation, poverty and despair, that comes upon so many, through scorn of little things. O, the charms of a home, though it be but a little home! Comforts dwell there that shun the gilded halls of society. Live contentedly in your little home, and wait for God to give you a nobler one.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Thomas Binnegan of Springfield, a member of the petit jury, was killed on Saturday evening last, while on his way home—a short distance this side of Pheasant Branch—by being thrown from a wagon.—He struck upon a stump, with such violence as to break his back, and died almost immediately.—Madison Journal.

The Enraged Planter, and How He Did Not Cut the Rope.

A few years ago Captain B., Provincetown, Cape Cod, Massachusetts, loaded his snug little schooner "Polly Ann" with shingles at Gardiner, on the Kennebec, Maine, and sailed with the morning tide for Charleston, South Carolina, where in due course of time, he arrived safely and disposed of his freight to a good advantage to the builders of that city.

He now, for return freight took in a load of cotton for the Lowell Mills, and with one passenger, a fair wind and a jolly crew, sailed for Boston.

On the third day out, the crew heard an unearthly soul harrowing, agonizing howl, or groan proceed from the hold—and though somewhat the victims of superstition, as most sailors are, their humanity got the better of their fears, they at once opened the hatchway and brought to light and fresh air a stalwart, though half suffocated negro, who had there secretly stowed himself, thereby to obtain a free passage to freedom.

As the negro was brought on deck, the single passenger—a wealthy planter residing near Charleston—was enjoying his after dinner cigar, recognizing the abject being before him as the slave of an old friend, he exclaimed, in passionate and authoritive tones—

"Jake you infernal rascal! ain't you Joe Brown's nigger?"

"Well, I was his nigger massa," replied the trembling colored man; "but day afore I left Cha'ston Massa Brown sells my wife and chile to de slave trader, who takes 'em to de souf for de sugar fields, and Massa Brown knocks me down wid a club and kicks me, kase I cries so dat couldn't work. So I jes hides myself in de ship, so I might go Norf where I wouldn't be tay more whipped for having a soul."

The slight tone of sarcasm in the closing sentence aroused the indignation of the planter and he attempted to kick the poor negro for his impudence; but the good hearted though Herculean mate interfered, with the suggestion that there never had been any flogging on board the "Polly Ann," and, without the Captain's positive order, nothing of the kind could for a moment be thought of.

Proceeding at once to the cabin, the planter thus gave vent to his feelings to the good natured and imperturable captain.

"Captain B., d—n your eyes! A runaway negro has just been discovered on board your vessel, and I demand in the name of the Constitution and Southern rights, that you immediately 'bout ship and return to Charleston."

The Captain coolly and deliberately took from his mouth a half smoked Havana, gazed at his excited passenger through the gray curling cloud of smoke, gracefully floating above the cabin, and replied—

"You are unduly excited, my dear boy let us talk over this matter."

"I won't talk the matter over," exclaimed the planter; I only ask the rights of the South, and those rights I will have."

"But," says the captain, "we are now three days out at sea; and isn't it best for us to discuss this subject a little before deciding to lose six days sail, a fair wind, and our own self respect, for the sake of gratifying your selfish ambition to rule and command wherever you are, and to return a poor unfortunate black man to a life-bondage of cruelty and oppression?"

Perfectly thunder struck at the captains coolness and audacity to speak of Southern "chivalry" as a "selfish ambition," the planter sprang to his feet, seized pistol in one hand and a bowie-knife in the other, stalked to and fro through the cabin a number of times, and suddenly stopping in front of the captain,—who had resumed his smoking,—exclaimed, in thunder tones—

"Sir!"

"Did you wish to resume the discussion about the Negro?" inquired the captain, offering the passenger a cigar, and pointing to an unoccupied chair.

"This is no discussion, sir!" exclaimed the planter. "I come not here to discuss, but to demand Southern Rights, and by all the powers of Heaven and Hell I'll have those rights, or—I am done forever.

"Let us discuss those rights first," replied the captain, "for you are at present a little excited brother K."

"Don't brother me!" screamed the infuriated passenger; "I am a brother to no man who will not give me my rights without discussion; and now I give you fair warning that unless you 'bout ship and start for Charleston within 12 hours from this time, you shall be debarred from my friendship, co-operation and society in this vessel.

Having thus delivered himself of his over charged eloquence and spirit, the planter returned to the quarter deck to devise means for a disolution with the Yankee captain.

The next morning at the break of day, on coming on deck the captain was not a little surprised and amused on noticing that the planter had seated himself in the yawl boat at the stern of the schooner, and, by the aid of the tackling rope had lowered her to the water's edge, and was now being drawn along by the rope—some thirty feet in length—fasted to the schooner's tiller.

On seeing the captain, the planter suddenly rose from his recumbent position, sprang to the bow of the tottering little yawl—for the sea was heavy and dangerous for a small craft,—drew from his bosom his glittering bowie knife and exclaimed—

"It wants but one blow of this shinning steel to sever forever the cord that binds us! Say that you will accede to my proposition made yesterday; and the blow shall not be given; but unless you at once retract your offensive remarks, and promise me under oath that I shall not again be crossed in my desires on board this vessel, the fatal blow shall be given—a final dissolution effected, and the fearful consequence, and with all its horror, shall rest upon your head. Speak the word quickly Captain B., or the knife falls."

The captain deliberately seated himself on a hen-coop, lighted a cigar, and commenced making astronomical calculations for the day—and when the bell rang for breakfast—the sea meanwhile increasing with the wind—the passenger begged like a trooper for assistance to hoist the yawl; for, like an honest reputation he had found it much easier to lower than to raise.

Being an exceedingly timid man ourself, it has always seemed strange to us that the captain did not at once make the required pledges.—but there are those who see in the captain, "Uncle Sam," and in the planter, a State that talks loud of "dissolution," and these men declare that the planter never for a moment intended to cut the rope, and that the 'Polly Ann' wouldn't have sunk if he had.

A SCHOOL GIRL'S LOVE.—There is both truth and poetry in the following lines, written by a school girl, and we dare say, that the recollection of those early dreams, so strangely different from the actual experiences of life, are still the most pleasant of all the memories. There is no sunshine like that of childhood.—It gleams through all the clouds of disappointment, and smiles upon us till the river of life mingles with the ocean of eternity:

I could na get my lesson,
Wi' the book before my een,
For the thoughts of canny ALBERT,
Came a keekin' in between.

The Argus, the obscene Milwaukee News, and the obscener Beaver Dam Buchaneer organ, together with their vile copyists throughout the State, must have some unpleasant sensations over the result in this State, of their falsehoods, ribaldry and abuse of the Republican party and its candidates.—Madison Jour.

Position of the Republican Party.

Whether Fremont is elected or not, the Republican Party has, in any case, fulfilled the first half of its mission. It has perfected its organization in the Free States, and in nearly all of them has attained a power which gives it the upper hand of the old parties. It is now ready for work and the performance of its mission as a party of progress and reform. He is deceived who sees in its mission only the restriction of Slavery to its present limits: all reform are comprehended in it which are necessary to the defence of freedom, the perpetuation of the Republic, and the welfare, the culture, and the happiness of every citizen.

Americans are blinded by the monstrous illusion that their Republic is to stand for all eternity. Not by party strife, but by lack of integrity in their citizens, is that Republic's fall, and when we consider how this lack has increased throughout the United States, how baseness and corruption have everywhere taken the place of integrity and probity, we must be convinced that our Republic is rather on the road to its destination than to its amelioration, and that it will require the strongest exertions to heal the cancer which now infests the whole body corporate. For there is no meanness which cannot find champions in this country; there are no measures so unrepublican and so fatal to Freedom, that they are not justified, demanded and adopted. What is forced upon monarchical and democratic States, by the constituted authority, is here carried through by corrupt demagogues; and the public press, instead of being the safeguard of Freedom and a tender of the people, has sunk to an accursed partizan prostitute, justifying all crimes, all misdeeds and all corruption, because they are available for its party, and spitting upon all measures and reforms when they are put forward or carried through by another party. So we see the violent extension of slavery supported, the trampling down of Free Speech and a Free Press excused, the annihilation of the right of suffrage justified, and the most horrid violence against freemen sanctioned. We see the people deceived and betrayed by a reactionary press, misled by base, corrupt demagogues, and such a lack of culture, of judgment, and of love for freedom and right, that these demagogues easily succeed in winning over the masses to the support of all their selfish, shameful tree slonshating plans.

What a sorrowful spectacle is the last election for every friend of Freedom. In it we see hundreds of thousands of citizens, from thoughtlessness, ignorance, folly, or still baser grounds, voting to strengthen and extend the principle of Slavery. Free laborers voted against the interests of free labor, against the interests of free soil; they voted for the success of a party which is endeavoring, by forcing slavery upon the Free Territories, to render them uninhabitable by free laborers. It would seem to be impossible that people in their senses should manage in such a way, and allow their worst enemies, the slaveholders, a victory annihilating themselves. But still it is so, and the blame of it belongs to corrupt demagogues and an equally corrupt press.

A striking proof of the depth to which political morality has sunk in the United States is to be found in the nominations of candidates for office. A ticket is hardly anything more than a register of rascals. Hardly any body asks about the character of a candidate now-a-days. Formerly the masses had political morality enough to keep corrupt men out of office, and to elect only men of probity and character.—But his ceased under the operation of the principle—"the spoils to the victors." The popular conscience expired. Men of character had fair play, and now characterlessness and conscienceless, so to speak, are on the point of becoming the two indispensable recommendations of an office seeker. We are now in such a state that a good citizen is compelled not to vote at all, or from a number of thieves to choose the least. A really good and true officer, seeking the welfare of the people, is as rare as a white crow; and if corruption progresses in the ratio in which it has for the last twenty years there will be no more such to be found, as no good man will longer care to have an office. Such a condition must have a demoralizing influence on society, and it is the mission of an effective party of freedom to save us from it. Hard as it is we expect the Republican party to solve this problem. In it are now united the better elements of the people, and they will succeed in cutting off the sordid portion of the party, or at least in depriving them of their power. The means of accomplishing this are already in the possession of the Republican party. It has a perfect organization—the better half of the press. It knows its power and knows how to use it. As a live party of freedom, it will make a healthy body of our Republic. We hope so.

FATTENING POULTRY.—Thanksgiving day and Christmas are coming, and we must have the ducks and the geese and the "chicken fixings" ready. Some shut up their poultry in a close dark place, and stuff them with dough made from Indian corn. Others give them a large prison, and feed them with dough mixed with milk. Others let them run where they please, taking care to feed them well three times per day. This mode will not fat them so fast as the close confinement method, but to our mind it appears to be the best mode. It is more healthy and congenial to the fowl, and the flesh will be likely to be more healthy.

A writer in the "Farmer's Library" recommends this mode for fattening turkies. He feeds them liberally in the morning, again at noon with grain. "At night, before roosting, they should be fed with oat meal and skim milk."

THE ELECTION OF JUDGE POTTER.—One of the most gratifying results of this contest is the election of Judge Potter to Congress, from the Milwaukee district, by a majority of 414.—We hardly dare say to whom the most credit is due for this result; but the true and unflinching Republicans of Milwaukee, are regarded with admiration throughout the State, and we cheerfully and heartily respond, "Well done Milwaukee!"—Janesville Gazette.

☞ "SENTINEL," in one of his cheerful, gossipping letters to the New York Courier, writes, among many other noticeable and readable things:

I have been told from an authority present in the cockpit of the Chesapeake, when the next officer came down to Capt. Lawrence, after he had been brought there, mortally wounded, that he did not say, "Don't give up the ship"—memorable, classic, and entwined with our annals, as is the sentence. What he did say were these words, and they are just as expressive, and more natural—"Fight her till she sinks."

CORN STALKS FOR HEAVES.—A gentleman in the American Agriculturist, states that he thoroughly cured a fine young mare afflicted with the heaves, by feeding her on corn stalks, and that, the disease never returned. The writer quotes Judge Buel's opinion as to cornstalk being a remedy, that distinguished agriculturists having had a horse afflicted with that disorder, which disappeared after being so fed.

THE SECOND BOGUS LEGISLATURE IN KANSAS.—The Kansas Legislature elected on the 6th ult., meets on the second Monday of January 1857. Active preparations are being made for the accommodation of the members and visitors, at Lecompton.—St. Louis Democrat.

PRESERVING APPLES.—If apples are carefully packed in hard wood sawdust, (how would be with pine we know not,) they will keep in an open garret through our coldest winters.—This we have tried, and we know it for a certainty. But in packing, care should be taken that none of the apples touch the barrel nor each other. We have had them open in fine order when thus packed, long after those in the cellar were rotten, or so withered as to be useless. N.

A FRANK CONFESSION.—The Waukesha Co. Democrat, proslavery, in accounting for the defeat of the party says:

"That full nine tenths of the people of the State are in favor of having Kansas come into the Union a free State, there is no doubt.—That a majority of them may think that the National Administration is in some degree responsible for the mismanagement of Reeder, Shannon, and others in Kansas, is possible: but the great obstacle the democratic party has had to contend with was the dread which seemed to prevade the minds of the voters that there was no hope of reforming the State, except in a complete and thorough overthrow of the democratic party.

INFLUENCE OF WOMAN.—From the lips of woman every infant hears the first accent of affection, and receives the lessons of tenderness and love.

For the approbation of woman, the grown up youth will undertake the boldest enterprise, and brave every difficulty of study and even death itself. To the happiness of woman, the man of mature years will devote the best energies of his mind, and from the affectionate regard of woman, the man who is become venerable in years, derives his chief consolation in life's decline.

DR. BELL'S OPINION OF HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.—SPRINGFIELD, ILL., April 11 1856.—Some months since, while recovering from an attack of Remittent Fever, I was requested to try Hostetter's Bitters, as an article peculiarly suited to the condition of convalescence from fever. It is but simple justice to say that it restored the powers of my digestive organs, and at the same time kept my bowels gently open. I have no hesitancy in saying, that, hitherto, in using it in my practice, it has, in every case where I have ordered it, acted like a charm. In thus speaking freely, I far from [illegible] a patent medicine, an article it by no means claims to be. SANDFORD BELL, M. D.

HOW OFTEN DO WE HEAR THE INQUIRY made, what can I get to cure this violent cramp I am nightly subject to? I well know the cause to be my too frequent indulgence in eating the vegetables and fruits of the season, besides taking a dozen or more glasses of ice-water during the day—consequently, must pay the penalty. Our advice to such would be, always to keep a bottle of Hostetter's celebrated Stomach Bitters in the house, as it will afford instant relief to any person having Cramps, Spasms, Cholera Morbus, &c., which are generally the result of over-indulgence in vegetable diet. In fact, when interest is consulted, no family should be without these Bitters. They can be had of any of our druggists for one dollar per bottle, containing a full quart, which will last the season. Sold by all druggists and dealers generally. oct6-daw1w

PROHIBITION.—THE RECENT DECISION of the people in almost every State in reference to the sale of liquors, does not pretend to interfere with medicinal compounds containing stimulus, as it is a fact well known to all that without stimulating principles many cases of extreme debility could not be reached, and the many other of our most valuable compounds could not be made without it. For instance, Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, now so celebrated and indispensable in every family as a medicine. FACTS CANNOT BE QUESTIONED, when the people of any country bear testimony in masses in the case of Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Astonishing Cure with only One Bottle.

JOS. B. HALL & CO., say:
PRESQUE ISLE, Aroostook Co., Me.,
April 24, 1854.

We herewith send you a certificate of a cure performed by the use of only one bottle of the German Bitters. We think Mr. Clark to be a man of veracity, and have no doubt of the truth of his story.

MESSRS. JOS. B. HALL & CO.—Gentlemen: In answer to your inquiries, I will state that my daughter, aged 16, has been complaining of a pain in her side for 6 or 7 years, and about the 1st of January last, was taken down and confined to her bed. The pain in her side was very severe, besides being troubled with pains between her shoulders and in her breast. From reading a number of cures performed by Hoofland's German Bitters, I was induced to try it in her case, and sent to your store and purchased one bottle. She had taken it but a few days when she began to improve, and now after taking only one bottle, she is enjoying better health than she has for years. She feels no pain in her side or any part of her body, and attributes her cure entirely to the German Bitters. WM CLARK.

Consumptives and Other Invalids!

IN COMPLIANCE with the repeatedly expressed wish of numbers of his patients,

Dr. Calvin M. Fitch

has made arrangements to visit Milwaukee before his return East, and will have rooms at the Walker House.

Dr. FITCH will be at Milwaukee from Monday, Nov. 9th, to Saturday evening Dec. 13th, where he may be consulted daily (Sabbath excepted) for Pulmonary Consumption, Asthma and Chronic Bronchitis, in the treatment of which the employment of appropriate constitutional and mechanical remedies, and mechanical inhalations, has given him a degree of success which can never attend a partial treatment of these obstinate and dangerous diseases; and, from experience, Dr. FITCH feels himself fully justified in asserting that, when disease is so far advanced that the above means fail, no other course can afford relief. Catarrh, either in the head or throat, which the use of local applications by means of throat and nasal syringes, together with the observance of necessary general measures, enable him to relieve in cases oftentimes of years' standing. He may be consulted for Dyspepsia and chronic inflammation of the stomach and bowels, and for which the employment of appropriate mechanical appliances enables him to treat with almost uniform success.

Dr. FITCH will be assisted by his associate Dr. J. W. SYKES, who will be at Milwaukee on the last two days of each week, when Dr. FITCH will be compelled to be absent. nov4-d&w&wtf

DENTISTRY.—It has been remarked that there is no art or profession in which ignorance and dishonesty are so secure as in this. The fear of being cheated out of their teeth as well as their money, has hitherto prevented many from availing themselves of this art, which, in honest and skillful hands, is capable of rendering a vast amount of real service to the human family. People are easily imposed upon, because ignorant of the improvements which have been made, and the usefulness they have a right to expect. Our friends can satisfy themselves of the beauty and perfection of Dr. HANSON'S work, by calling at his office. His candor, business integrity and skill at his profession, we commend from personal acquaintance. nov10

DR. CALVIN M. FITCH.

AUTHOR of the "Invalid's Guide and Consumptive's Manual," &c., having returned from Europe, is at present on a Professional Visit to Chicago, and may be consulted daily (Sabbath's excepted), at his rooms at the SHERMAN HOUSE.

Dr. FITCH'S success is due not alone to his ample experience, but to the fact that, regarding Consumption as both a local and general disease, he treats it as such—by medicinal and athenotrephic inhalations, reaching directly the diseased surfaces, while by appropriate Internal Remedies and General Measures, he removes the constitutional taint which gives rise to the local disease.

Basing upon the same principle his treatment of Asthma and Chronic Bronchitis, Dr. FITCH has had the pleasure of relieving cases of many years' standing, and which had resisted all ordinary measures.

In the treatment of other Chronic Affections, and especially Female Diseases, the employment of mechanical remedies as well as medicine, gives him a degree of success only to be secured by this combination of remedial means.

CEMENT ROOFING!

In 28 Counties of this State, including Milwaukee and Sheboygan,

BEG LEAVE to call attention to the superior qualities possessed by this cement over all others now in use. It is

A Non-Conductor of Heat,

Thus rendering the upper stories of a building as cool as the lower. It is

Effectually Fire Proof,

Thus affording complete protection from any possible ignition to the roof externally.

It is Entirely Water Proof,

And as it imparts no flavor to water passing over, or contained on it, renders it invaluable to those who desire to use rain water. It is more durable than tin, zinc, or shingles, or than any other concrete roofing now in use, being composed of the most enduring materials known to the chemical world, the most prominent of which is Gum Shellac. In fact, it possesses all the qualifications necessary for a good and efficient roof.

The undersigned are now ready to receive orders and furnish satisfactory testimonials.

Hear What They Say Who Have Seen it Used

We, the undersigned, having had an opportunity of seeing roofs covered with Billings' Patent Cement Roofing put to very severe tests, were so impressed with its superior qualities as to have our own buildings covered with it, and would certainly, from what we have seen of it, recommend it to all persons desirous of having their buildings covered with a good, substantial fire and water proof roof. PETER SWEAT, } Chicago. JNO. D. ARNOLD, } WILLIAM CLARK Waukesha.

For sale by J. M. HURLBUT, Waukesha.

Having seen it subjected to a rigid and careful test during the past year, upon various new buildings in this city, we feel warranted in giving it our unqualified approbation as an excellent, and, indeed, the very best contrivance within our knowledge for the purposes intended. It has all the elements requisite for a good roof. The materials are enduring, not being subject to decay; and neither wetness, prolonged to any extent, nor the most severe heat of the sun can decompose it, or cause it in the least to liquify. It is fire and water proof, and its cheapness and the ubiquity of its materials, places it within the reach of every one. We have no doubt that within three years from this time, its unquestionable merit will insure its adoption in all the towns in the North-west, in place of the inflammable and expensive materials now in use.—Beardstown Gazette.

It gives me pleasure to state that before finishing the first bottle, the disease receded. I then ordered two more bottles, and, with heartfelt gratitude, I state to you the fact that two bottles of your excellent preparation have entirely cured me. The third bottle I gave to a friend who had been suffering with Salt Rheum for a length of time, and he, like myself, owes his restoration to health, to the virtues of Carter's Spanish Mixture.—You are at liberty to use this letter in any way you may think proper, if it will benefit the afflicted.

At prices which will make it an object for all to give us a call and examine our goods.

One of the members of the Firm having had many years' experience in the wholesale trade in New York, and being connected with some of the largest houses in that city, we are consequently enabled to offer our goods

25 Per Cent. Lower

Than can be purchased at any house west of that city.

As to the quality and extent of our stock, we can safely defy competition. We have made it our special aim to secure Goods, which for beauty and durability can not be surpassed. We desire to call the particular attention of

COUNTRY MERCHANTS

To our stock. They can now complete their purchases in this city, as we are prepared to fill the vacancy in this line, which has heretofore existed.

We have a stock particularly adapted to Wisconsin trade, and will sell better goods at lower figures, and on as favorable terms, as any house west of New York city.

We respectfully submit our claims to the attention of a discriminating public, and shall endeavor to merit a due share of patronage.

CEMENT ROOFING !

In 28 Counties of this State, including Milwaukee and Sheboygan,

BEG LEAVE to call attention to the superior qualities possessed by this cement over all others now in use. It is

A Non-Conductor of Heat,

Thus rendering the upper stories of a building as cool as the lower. It is

Effectually Fire Proof,

Thus affording complete protection from any possible ignition to the roof externally.

It is Entirely Water Proof,

And as it imparts no flavor to water passing over, or contained on it, renders it invaluable to those who desire to use rain water. It is more durable than tin, zinc, or shingles, or than any other concrete roofing now in use, being composed of the most enduring materials known to the chemical world, the most prominent of which is Gum Shellac. In fact, it possesses all the qualifications necessary for a good and efficient roof.

The undersigned are now ready to receive orders and furnish satisfactory testimonials.

Hear What They Say Who Have Seen it Used

We, the undersigned, having had an opportunity of seeing roofs covered with Billings' Patent Cement Roofing put to very severe tests, were so impressed with its superior qualities as to have our own buildings covered with it, and would certainly, from what we have seen of it, recommend it to all persons desirous of having their buildings covered with a cheap, substantial fire and water proof roof.

PETER SWEAT, } Chicago.
JNO. D. ARNOLD, }
WILLIAM CLARK Waukesha.

For sale by J. M. HURLBUT, Waukesha.

Having seen it subjected to a rigid and careful test during the past year, upon various new buildings in this city, we feel warranted in giving it our unqualified approbation as an excellent, and, indeed, the very best contrivance within our knowledge for the purposes intended. It has all the elements requisite for a good roof. The materials are enduring, not being subject to decay; and neither wetness, prolonged to any extent, nor the most severe heat of the sun can decompose it, or cause it in the least to liquify. It is fire and water proof, and its cheapness and the ubiquity of its materials, places it within the reach of every one. We have no doubt that within three years from this time, its unquestionable merit will insure its adoption in all the towns in the North west, in place of the inflammable and expensive materials now in use.—Beardstown Gazette.

A WORD TO A CANDID PUBLIC.—Scarcely four years have elapsed since the presentation of our now celebrated Stomach Bitters was made to you. You have tested their efficacy, and have manifested your appreciation by your generous patronage, from the fact that they have invariably accomplished all they purported to do, and if there is still among you any who from predisposition have included our preparation in their general prejudice against medicine, we would earnestly refer them to any of the leading physicians in the land, who now invariably prescribe it in all cases of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Billiousness, Flatulency, Constipation, Loss of Apetite, &c. It does not profess to cure all things, but we hold for the above diseases it is the only speedy and reliable remedy. We would seriously caution you against the different spurious articles gotten up and palmed off as the genuine "Hostetter," and it is due to yourselves to acquaint us with all parties engaged therein. We have at present several in different parts of the Union under bonds, but hereafter we intend prosecuting to the fullest extent of the law.

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.—IN THE present state of the weather some gentle invigorator is often essential to preserve the balance of the system and especially the digestive organs. If all those in whom those important organs are disarranged were to try Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, they would consult their own interest by doing so. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters correct the appetite, impart tone to the system, force off the bile and all impure secretions, regulate the bowels, give us strength of body and vigor of mind, and are the wonder of the age for dissipating dyspeptic tendencies. In all cases of physical prostration, palpitation, dizziness, great fatigue, &c., it is surprising how soon the patient finds relief. No family can afford to be without it. It requires no addition of spirits. Sold, in full quart bottles, by all hotels, grocers, druggists, &c. Extremely palatable. oct13-dawlw

TRAVELERS ALONG OUR WESTern waters should always take the precaution to supply themselves with a genuine article of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, as it is now conceded by all who have tried this invaluable medicine, that they will regulate the stomach, if used as per directions on the bottle, and carry a traveler safe through all the various changes of diet as well as water, which, without, often will produce sickness and death. Hence one ounce of preventive is worth a pound of cure. For sale by druggists and hotels generally, and H. BOSWORTH & SON and JOHN H. TESCH. oct13-dawlw

IN HADDOCK'S BOOK OF PLATES and Illustrated Counterfeit Detector for 1856, he says: Hostetter's Bitters are really what their name implies, a tonic and gentle stimulant, calculated to act upon the system as a medicine, and not, as is too often the case a mere invention under which to indulge in tippling.—We would not venture to make this statement, did we not feel sure it would be corroborated by the willing testimony of thousands all over the United States, and especially throughout the western and southern parts, where certain disorders prevail, which require just such a prescription. We are assured by a gentleman of large experience, who is a traveled man, and whose judgment and impartiality may be relied upon, that Hostetter's Bitters are a sure thing on Fever and Ague, that scourge of our newly settled regions; which indeed has, within the past year, prevailed to an alarming extent in sections generally exempt. These Bitters are sold by all Druggists. oct27-dawlw ☞ Fever and Ague cured without using quinine, arsenic, mercury, opium, or any of the poisonous drugs or dangerous compounds, usually resorted to by sufferers from this long drawn, most afflicting and annoying of all diseases, by resorting to Carter's Spanish Mixture; which contains none of the above deleterious substances, but cures effectually and fully by acting specifically on the liver and skin, purifying the blood and expelling the remains of old medicines with which the system has been clogged, opening the pores of the body, and allowing nature to assist itself in breaking up the disease and recuperating its energies. See the cure of Mr. John Longden, of Va.; he had fixed and chronic ague and fever; chills twice a day for three years: nothing permanently curable until he tried Carter's Spanish Mixture, three bottles of which perfectly restored him to health, nor has he had a chill since. He's only one out of a thousand who has experienced the life renewing effects of this valuable purifyer of the blood.

Dull care to the air, and at five cents a string;
Roll away, boll away heartily and strong,
'Twill develope the man, and his life thus prolong.

Who would sit moping all day in his chair,
When pleasure and profit, so rich and so rare,
Can be had, and that, too, at such a cheap rate,
At the Bowling Saloon of the old "Badger State."

Come, then, Young America, foreigners too,
Here's rolling and bolling—not just for the few,
But for old and young, for little and great—
Come join in the fun at the old "Badger State."
